Step 3 – make sure you understand what is involved

It is recommended that you read the publication, "Being a Good Councillor" which explains more about the role and the responsibilities of councillors – copies are available on request. If you have any questions you are welcome to raise them with the Town Clerk.

Step 4 – send a letter of application to the Council

Once a casual vacancy has been advertised the Council is expected to fill it as soon as possible. Applications will be considered at the next available full Council meeting. To ensure that your application is included on the agenda it should be sent to the Town Clerk at least one week before the meeting (earlier if there are bank holidays).

Step 5 – attend Town Council meeting

You will be invited to attend the next full Town Council meeting at which your application will be considered. The Town Clerk will provide you with an agenda for the meeting, which will normally be held at 7pm on the first Tuesday of the month in the Community Room at Dursley Fire Station.

At the meeting you will be given the opportunity to speak for a maximum of 5 minutes to introduce yourself and explain why you want to join the council.

If there are more candidates than vacancies the co-option will be decided by a ballot of the members. Voting will be according to the statutory requirements, in that, a successful candidate must have received an absolute majority vote of those present and voting. If there are more than two candidates for one vacancy and no one of them at the first count receives a majority over the aggregate votes given to the rest, steps must be taken to strike off the candidate with the least number of votes and the remainder must then be put to the vote again; this process must, if necessary, be repeated until an absolute majority is obtained.

Councillors shall vote by show of hands, or, if at least two members so request, by signed ballot. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman of the meeting has a second or casting vote.

Step 6 – joining the Town Council

On successful co-option you will be invited to sign a Declaration of Acceptance of Office which completes the process for joining the council. Within 28 days of co-option you are also required to complete a Register of Disclosable Pecuniary Interests which will be provided by the Town Clerk.

If you unsuccessful you can request that your details be kept on file for up to 6 months should any new vacancies arise.
